

STRIKER Tony Horseman, who left Wycombe Wanderers after 12 years with the Loakes Park club, has signed on for local Hellenic League, Division One side, Ernest Turners.

Tony, in fact, played in the Works team's 2-0 defeat at Thatcham on Saturday after an S.O.S. from former Wycombe colleague Paul Bates, Turners manager, who was short of players.

It seems unlikely that Horseman will play regularly for Turners and is not included in the side who meet M.G. Athletic at Totteridge on Saturday.

Meanwhile tonight (Tuesday), Wycombe face their sternest test of the season so far when they meet their Amateur Cup, semi-final conquerers Hendon, at Loakes Park (7.30 p.m.).

Wanderers manager Brian Lee will choose from an injury free full strength squad and is likely to make changes from the side that conceded its first goals in their 2-0 defeat at Walthamstow Avenue on Saturday. Wycombe were previously unbeaten and had a 100 per cent defensive record.

With Walton and Hersham, top of the league Hendon are one of only two sides left in the Isthmian League yet to be beaten this season. Their victims include Leatherhead, Tooting, St. Albans, Kingstonian, Hitchin, and a 1-1 draw in their opening match at Clapton. In addition they put three goals past Walthamstow without reply.

There is only one newcomer to their successful team of last term, Phil Fry who has joined the mid field ranks. Peter Deadman, who scored the winner at Brentford in the Amateur Cup semi-final, Tony Bass, Bobby Childs and John Swannell are just some of their impressive line-up.

While scoring goals has been one of Wycombe's bigger problems so far this season, Hendon have no such worries, with 21 goals coming in seven games. But against Leatherhead's strong defence they could only manage a 1-0 home victory on Saturday.

HENDON (probable team): Swannell, Jennings, Hand, Deadman, Phillips, Haider, Childs, Connell, Bass, Baker, Fry, (sub Rodney).
